

Current information:

ART PRIZE GERMANY 2024/25

Application deadline: until May 31, 2024

A. Process

Phase 1: Participation in the ART PRIZE GERMANY takes place by submitting photos by uploading a maximum of five works of art (disciplines: painting, sculpture/object, photography/digital art) via an online form on www.kunstpreis-deutschland.de.

Phase 2: The digitally submitted works are viewed by a five-person jury of experts on a large screen - and those works are nominated that qualify for the final jury meeting. The final jury meeting, at which the three prize winners are determined, takes place approximately one month after the nomination meeting.

Phase 3: The following art prizes will be awarded in a ceremonial setting:

- Gold Award “ART PRIZE GERMANY 2024/25 for painting”
- Gold Award “ART PRIZE GERMANY 2024/25 for sculpture / object”
- Gold Award “ART PRIZE GERMANY 2024/25 for Photography / Digital Art”

B. Key data

Events:

- Application: Upload (1 to 5 works) on www.kunstpreis-deutschland.de: by May 31, 2024
- The jury nominates digitally submitted works for the final jury meeting: by October 31, 2024
- Announcement of the works nominated by the expert jury by email: by November 30, 2024
- An independent jury of experts will determine the winners: by January 31, 2025
- Awarding of the ART PRIZE GERMANY 2024-25: April 2025 (date not yet set)
- Location of the award ceremony: This will be announced at a later date.

Book for the art prize: Publication of a print documentation and an e-book for the ART PRIZE GERMANY 2024/25, in which the nominated works (photos and texts), the award-winning works - and the names of the artists are presented.

The patron of the ART PRIZE GERMANY 2024/25 is Heinrich Prince of Hannover.

ART PRIZE GERMANY 2023/24

The art prize winners: Sonja Keppler (Pforzheim), Rika Pütthoff-Glinka (Dortmund), Frank Schult (Celle)

Sonja Keppler with the sculpture “Widerstandshelm IV”, Rika Pütthoff-Glinka with the digital art work “Lebensfreude” and Frank Schult with the painting “Kopflös durch die Zeit” made it. Among over 220 works submitted by artists from 22 countries, the artists living in Pforzheim, Dortmund and Celle prevailed and can now call themselves winners of the 2023/24 GERMANY ART PRIZE. The award ceremony took place on April 6, 2024 at the STEIGENBERGER Parkhotel Braunschweig. The patron of the ART PRIZE GERMANY 2023/24 was Dr. Prince Asfa-Wossen Asserate (Frankfurt).